

Building Newsflash

BCA Section J Brisbane seminar

Purpose

The purpose of this Newsflash is to advise that Australian Institute of Refrigeration Air Conditioning and Heating (AIRAH) will host a one day seminar in Brisbane on Wednesday 17 September 2008 on Section J of the Building Code of Australia (BCA).

Background

The one day seminar will provide an analysis and open discussion of the energy efficiency requirements of BCA Section J along with a summary of the verification requirements.

Australian standards related to Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning (HVAC) designs will also be analysed to determine their impact on energy efficiency.

Two prominent environmental rating tools used in today's non residential market, the National Australian Building Environment Rating System and Green Star will be appraised to identify their impact on energy efficient HVAC designs.

The AIRAH conference registration form and further information is attached.

Contact for further information

Phil Wilkinson – Ph: (03) 8623 3010
Australian Institute of Refrigeration, Air Conditioning and Heating.

DISCLAIMER: The information contained in this Newsflash is provided by the State of Queensland in good faith. The material is general in nature and before relying on the material in any important matter, users should carefully evaluate its accuracy, currency, completeness and relevance for their purpose. It is not intended as a substitute for consulting the relevant legislation or for obtaining appropriate professional advice relevant to your particular circumstances. The State of Queensland cannot accept responsibility or liability for any loss, damage, cost or expense you might incur as a result of the use of or reliance on information contained in this Newsflash. It is not intended to be, and should not be relied upon as the ultimate and/or complete source of information.