

Australian Institute of Building Surveyors

“Construction of Buildings in Bushfire Prone Areas”

Mackay

10 September 2009

CPD POINTS – 3

We are pleased to announce that we are also sending our speakers to Mackay. We are very fortunate to have secured the expertise and knowledge of Mr Philip Finimore and Mr Bernard Trembath who will be providing information on how to apply AS 3959.

The Queensland Government is proposing to adopt Australian Standard 3959 - 2009 before the next version of the Building Code of Australia commences on 1 May 2010. A new draft Queensland Development Code, MP 2.4 - Buildings in bushfire prone areas, is currently published on the Department of Infrastructure and Planning's website. Subject to final approval, Queensland proposes to adopt Part MP 2.4 on 1 October 2009.

About the session:

The sessions will be conducted by the following speakers:

- Mr Philip Finimore – Principal Advisor at Building Codes Queensland
- Mr Bernard Trembath - Superintendent with the Queensland Fire and Rescue Service (Rural Operations)

Areas of discussion:

- Legislation and when the new bushfire standard will apply
- The steps to follow when applying the new bushfire standard
- Possible changes to the new bushfire standard to suit Queensland's environment

See you there

Michelle Meek

Please note

Please arrive 15 minutes before the session
A light lunch will be served at these sessions
